

WIKILEAKS – THE FORGOTTEN MAN

Private Bradley Manning was the man US authorities allege stole classified military files, providing them to WikiLeaks for publication.

While WikiLeaks founder Julian Assange battles to avoid extradition from the United Kingdom to Sweden, on the other side of the Atlantic Bradley Manning is facing a court martial. If found guilty he could spend the rest of his life in prison.

It's a case that has all the hallmarks of a spy thriller. Bradley Manning was a US soldier serving in Iraq, when he allegedly downloaded classified files onto a disk storing Lady Gaga songs. It's alleged he then confided what he'd done to a computer hacker. A short time later the authorities arrested Manning and he's been in a military jail ever since.

WIKILEAKS – THE FORGOTTEN MAN tells the story of Bradley Manning and the people who helped the United States government build a case against him. The program explores the ferocious battle between hackers and the US government as they pursue Julian Assange and WikiLeaks.

WIKILEAKS – THE FORGOTTEN MAN also talks to Juan Mendez, the United Nations Special Rapporteur on Torture, about the treatment of Bradley Manning. Mr Mendez says Manning was subjected to cruel, inhuman and degrading treatment during his "excessive and prolonged isolation" at Quantico Marine Corps Base outside Washington.

The question remains: will Bradley Manning attempt to avoid a life sentence by turning against Julian Assange?

SEX LIES and JULIAN ASSANGE

SEX, LIES AND JULIAN ASSANGE

SEX, LIES AND JULIAN ASSANGE has recently sold to Canal + (France), N24 (Germany), RTVE (Ecuador), Espresso Networks (Italy) and Carte Blanche (South Africa).

When Julian Assange arrived in Sweden in August 2010 he was greeted like a conquering hero. But within weeks there was a warrant out for his arrest and he was being investigated for rape and sexual molestation. Today he is taking sanctuary in the Ecuadorean Embassy in London, arguing he won't receive justice if he's taken to Sweden and that US authorities are building a case for his extradition.

SEX, LIES AND JULIAN ASSANGE examines in detail what happened in those crucial weeks while Julian Assange was in Sweden. What was the nature of his relationship with the two women who claim he assaulted them? And what did they tell police that led the authorities to seek his arrest?

Both Assange and his supporters believe the attempt by authorities to force his return to Sweden is simply the first step in a plan to see him extradited to the United States.

SEX, LIES AND JULIAN ASSANGE looks at claims the United States is working hard to unearth evidence that would lead to a charge of "conspiracy to commit espionage" being made against Assange - which in turn would be used in his extradition from Sweden. The program also documents the harassment experienced by Assange's supporters across the globe - including his Australian lawyer - and the FBI's attempts to convince some to give evidence against him.

Contact Content Sales

Australia, New Zealand and Rest of World Sales Sydney Head Office
700 Harris Street Ultimo NSW 2007 Australia tel +61 2 8333 5351 fax +61 2 8333 3169
UK and European Sales London Office tel +44 20 7808 1361 fax +44 20 7799 5482 email abc.contentsales@abc.net.au website www.abccommercial.com/contentsales

ABC
Australian Broadcasting Corporation
Commercial